Susquehanna Valley Home, Binghamton, N. Y., October 6, 1887.

The Susquehanna Valley Home respectfully represents, that on August 4th, 1886, Arthur Pike, a ward of Chenango County, duly committed to this institution for maintenance, fell from a swing while at a picnic, and by such fall received serious and permanent injuries. Further, that the Home has taken the most efficient care of said boy, calling a physician on seventy six several occasions, besides special consultations, and furnishing two careful nurses day and night for a period of over nine months.

This was done entirely as an act of humanity, there being no obligation by charter that the Home should in anywise act as a hospital, and was done under the protest of some of the managers of the institution.

The Home respectfully prays your Honorable Board, that if consistent with just appreciation of facts, you will afford us partial relief from the heavy expense incurred in case above recited, the amount to be left entirely to your discretion.

Respectfully,
SUSQUEHANNA VALLEY HOME.

To the Board of Supervisors of Chenango County:

Your Special Committee, appointed at the last annual session of this Board, namely on the sixteenth day of November, 1886, to attend to all matters connected with the appeal by said Board of Supervisors, from the decision of the General Term, Fourth Department, in the case of the appeal of the town of Norwich, from the equalization of said Board of Supervisors in the year 1882; would respectfully report—

That during the present year the above entitled appeal has been taken to the Court of Appeals of the State of New York, where it was argued in April last, and the judgment of the General Term was affirmed with costs in the following endorsement by the Court of Appeals upon the back of the papers:

AND WHEREAS, It apppears that in determining the amount of the county and State tax, paid by the town of Norwich in such excess, an error was made by the State Assessors, and that the amount should have been found by them to be $1,174.13 instead of $1,288.82; and

WHEREAS, The interest on the said $1,174.13 will amount on the first day of February, 1888, to the sum of $297.79; and

WHEREAS, Upon the appeal to the General Term of the Supreme Court and to the Court of Appeals of the State of New York, said decisions of the Board of State Assessors, as modified, has been affirmed with costs to the town of Norwich and against the county of Chenango, and judgment has heretofore been duly entered pursuant to the decision of the said General Term and the Court of Appeals.

Resolved, That the sum of fourteen hundred seventy-one dollars and ninety-two cents ($1,471.92) be levied and assessed upon the towns of Afton, Bainbridge, Columbus, Coventry, Greene, Guilford, New Berlin and Sherburne, in the like

To the Board of Supervisors of Chenango County:

Your committee to whom was referred the accounts of the Superintendent of the Poor, would respectfully report that they have examined the accounts of the Superintendent of the Poor, as submitted, and found them correct.

We would further report that we have visited the county farm and find that the buildings are kept in good order and the inmates well cared for.

We repeat the recommendations made by the committee of last year that an appropriation be made by the Supervisors of this county as soon as they feel able to bear the burden, that the horse barn, wheel house and wood shed be rebuilt, the present buildings being unsafe and unsuitable.

We also recommend that the halls and stairways in the poor house be wainscoted and papered, and that an addition be erected whereby the idiotic may be kept separate from the paupers of sound mind and cleanly habits.

We also find that the amount of $118.27 in the case of W. M. Coe, in dispute last year, as between the town of Plymouth and the county, has been paid to the County Treasurer during this session, and since his annual report to the Board, and the county reimbursed for all costs in the matter.

We also find that the Superintendent has received and credited to the town of Sherburne, $104.50, and to the town of Guilford, $106.05, which do not appear upon the County Treasurer's report, but for which he holds the receipts of said Treasurer, dated since his report We have requested the Treasurer to mark said credits that they may not be deducted from the poor bills of said towns next year.

All of which is respectfully submitted.

MR. SMITH called from the table the following communication from D. L. Atkyns, Esq.

SHERBURNE, November 24, 1887.

To the Board of Supervisors of Chenango County :

GENTLEMEN—I ask permission to call your attention to a matter which should be of deep concern to every person in this county, and which, as I think, has been too long neglected. It is the matter of doing simple justice to the memory of the brave, honest-hearted, loyal soldiers of Chenango County who laid down their lives to preserve our country from dismemberment and ruin in the war of 1861-5.

I had hoped to be permitted to address your body upon the subject in person, but not being able to do so (if permitted by you) I send this communication, sincerely hoping it will receive consideration, as the subject, not the letter, shall deserve.

In 1865 and 1866 when the memory of the sacrifices made, when the many noble forms and faces had not been so long out of our sight, and when only voluntary aid could be had. several meetings of representative men from the several towns were held at the Court House, at which only one voice was expressed, and that in favor of a monument in commemoration of our fallen heroes. Resolutions were so passed and all bid fair to be successful, when the idea of town monuments began to be mooted and that led to such want of harmony as caused the whole project to fall through.

As a result—Sherburne has a fine monument--the gift of one of her noblest citizens. New Berlin has one—the work of her own patriotic people. I am not aware (there may be) of any other. Twenty-two years, almost a quarter of a century, has passed, and nothing has been done by way of public commemoration of the faithful, loyal, heroic boys, who left happy homes, mother, father, sister, wife, children, all, and gave up life that the nation might live.

Much, not enough, is being done for the living, but the memory of the brave from Lincklaen, Pitcher, Otselic, Pharsalia, German, McDonough, Smithville, Coventry, Guilford—from most of the towns of our county is dying out—is recalled only by near friends, and in broken households. One cannot dilate in such a communication. This treatment of our holy dead is unjust—it is cruel—It is not the fulfilment of the assurances uttered when they went to do battle for us and for our homes and country. You know it all, you see it all, and nothing farther need be said.

Shall it be so longer? May not local jealousies be laid aside upon a question like this? May not duty, simple justice to the dead be done, without opposition which can have no basis but selfishness? If not, then for all time this cruel neglect, born of conceit, will leave four-fifths of the dead martyrs to duty and liberty, (of Chenango County) unknown and forgotten. Hundreds sleep in southern swamps and fields with not a board or stone to mark their resting place, while if right was done, somewhere in this county would stand a granite block, bearing their names and an inscription as touching as that which for hundreds of years told the passer by of the glorious deeds done at Thermopylea.

In 1886, by Chap. 173 Laws N. Y. 1886, power was given Boards of Supervisors of counties, by a two-thirds vote, to raise and appropriate money, as they deem necessary for the erection and repairs of such monument. For $20,000 or less a monument can be erected which shall be a pride to our county and a just tribute to our dead heroes.

I do not assume that your body would feel justified in taking any definite action at this time, but it certainly should pass some resolution upon the subject, which can be published in the county papers, and thus the attention of each town called, so that each Supervisor may, at the next annual meeting of your body, know what action his town would approve in the matter.

Gentlemen, hoping this may receive attention at your hands, and having no apology to offer for its length, other than the nature of its subject,

I remain your obedient servant,

D. L. ATKYNS.

Mr. Smith offered the following:

Resolved, That the communication of D. L. Atkyns, Esq., be received, placed upon the minutes of this Board, and published in the Journal of Proceedings for the current year.

Resolved, That the subject of making some proper recognition of the services rendered on the battle fields of the Civil War by the brave sons of Chenango, hereby elicits our sympathy, and we recommend that action be taken at an early day to commemorate the deeds of these valiant men, by the erection of a suitable monument or building, to be located at some central point in this county.

Resolved, That we as members of this Board, will make an effort to ascertain the sentiment of the taxpayers of our respective towns on this subject, to the end that some plan may be adopted to carry into effect the spirit of these resolutions.

Adopted.

Mr. Juliand moved that the resolution offered by Mr. D. B. Cushman, relative to the Sheriff having charge of the county parks, be taken from the table.

Carried.

Mr. Hakes withdrew the amendment to the resolution offered by him.

Mr. D. B. Cushman moved that the resolution be adopted.

Discussion was had relative to the subject by Messrs. Owen and D. B. Cushman.

The motion to adopt was declared lost by the Chairman.

Mr. D. B. Cushman asked that the ayes and noes be called, but before the Clerk was able to call the roll, Mr. Owen moved that the Board adjourn until 8:30 A. M., December 1st, 1887.

Lost.

Ayes—Messrs. Brown, G. I. Cushman, Hakes, Owen, Pearsall, Sprague, Shepardson, Truesdell—8.

Noes—Messrs. Bentley, Copley, D. B. Cushman, Juliand, Kelley, Lottridge, Lewis, Pierce, Poole, Pudney, Quinn, Stafford, Smith—13.

The ayes and noes were then taken on the resolution offered by Mr. D. B. Cushman.

Lost.

Ayes—Messrs. Copley, D. B. Cushman, Lottridge, Pudney, Quinn, Stafford, Shepardson—7.

Adopted.

Mr. Owen offered the following:

Resolved, That in the opinion of this Board it is the duty of the Sheriff of this county to protect from encroachment the public parks belonging to the county, to prevent mutilation of the shrubbery thereon and to maintain order upon said parks at all times.

Adopted.

On motion of Mr. Pierce, the Board adjourned to 8 A. M. Decem- 1st, 1887.

Adopted.

Mr. Truesdell offered the following :

Resolved, That we acknowledge the kind attention of Sheriff Robb, for his efforts in promoting the comfort and pleasure of the Board.

Adopted.

Mr. Stafford offered the following :

Resolved, That the Chairman and Clerk be authorized to examine and approve the Journal of Proceedings when published, and if approved by them to draw an order for payment of the cost as per award made to the publisher.

Adopted.

The Tax Warrants were signed by the Supervisors, and with the County Orders and Town Abstracts were delivered by the Clerk to the Supervisors of the several towns.

Mr. Lottridge moved that the Board adjourn sine die.

The Chairman, before putting the motion to adjourn, thanked the Board for the harmony which had prevailed among all the members, and the diligence and attention which each and all had bestowed in the performance of all their duties.

He, himself, had endeavored to perform the duties devolved upon him as their Chairman, without partiality and with a regard to the best interests of the county at large, as well as the interests of the individual members. If he had failed in any part of those duties, it was an error of the head, not the heart. During his several years service on previous Boards of Supervisors he had not known of any session that had been any more harmonious, or one where the members had each and all performed their work more faithfully than had been done at the present session.

He wished all the members a safe journey home and very many years of prosperity in the future.

Mr. Lottridge's motion was then carried unanimously, and the Chairman declared the Board of Supervisors of Chenango County of 1887, adjourned without day.

I hereby certify the foregoing to be a correct copy of the original record of the proceedings of the Board of Supervisors of the County of Chenango, at their annual session in November, 1887.

OXFORD, N. Y., December 5th, 1887.

JOHN R. GLOVER, Clerk of the Board.

SPECIAL NOTICE TO MAGISTRATES.

In pursuance of directions at the late session of the Board of Supervisors of Chenango County, the Chairman and Clerk of the Board have effected an arrangement with the managers of the Onondaga Penitentiary at Syracuse, commencing January 1st, 1888, and ending January 1st, 1889, whereby persons convicted of misdemeanors may be sentenced for not less than ninety days to that institution.

Magistrates will therefore be careful in making sentence to such institution for at least ninety days, as no convict will be reeeived there for any less period of time. Shorter term convicts will be maintained at the county jail as heretofore. The amount paid for maintenance under this contract is $1.50 per week.

Dated January 5, 1888.

JOHN R. GLOVER, Clerk.
